5 The Oread Mountaineering Club

The Oread Mountaineering Club was founded in 1949 and has about 180 members. The club exists to encourage and further all aspects of mountaineering activities, but in particular rock climbing, ice and snow climbing, both in the United Kingdom and abroad. This aim is greatly encouraged and facilitated by regular club meets, social activities and informal meets.

The Oread has a full meets list. Members also enjoy a range of informally arranged mid-week activities including use of climbing walls and social events. From October to March the club runs a monthly lecture programme, presently at the Royal Oak, Ockbrook. A regular monthly newsletter keeps members informed on all events. Nowadays this is circulated by e-mail wherever practical. An e-mail discussion-group (oread@yahoo-groups.com) is also a mechanism to keep in touch about club activities.

The Club has its own website: www.oread.co.uk, which provides a description of the Club; its history, its activities and its Officers. There is a current meets list, advice on how to contact the Club and a downloadable Membership Application Form.

The Oread welcomes new members. The club is unable to undertake any formal instruction, though members will generally share their mountaineering experience. The club owns a large hut, Tan-yr-Wyddfa, in North Wales and a rented cottage and barn, Healthy Lea, in Derbyshire. These form an integral part of the club's activities and a major financial commitment. Working parties take care of maintenance and repairs for which active support is needed from the members. Full members can obtain a key which gives access to both huts.

5.1 Membership

The essential prerequisite to becoming a member is to become known to the members of the Club and to show an overall interest in the club's activities and its meets. Newcomers will be offered every opportunity to meet the Oread and made welcome. Anyone may become a Prospective Member by application to the committee through the General Secretary. A Prospective Member will receive a membership card and regular copies of the newsletter. Prospective members are not able to use the club's name in any formal actions, such as booking huts on the B.M.C. list. Election to full Membership (which affords such privileges) is through the channels laid down in the Rules.

7 A Guide to the use of the Oread Huts

The huts are an important focal point of the club's activities and a reflection of the Club's collective responsibility. What outsiders see of our huts and the behaviour in and around them will temper their tolerance (or otherwise) of our activities. Consideration of our neighbours is essential.

All full Members have the same rights and carry the same responsibilities for looking after our huts.

The following describes the facilities we have and gives guidance for their use. The major consideration is respect for other people and the fostering of an atmosphere in which everyone staying at the hut can have as enjoyable a stay as possible.

7.1 Hut Fees

These are given in Section 3 above and are displayed on the hut notice board and in the hut register. Non-payment of hut fees is a serious offence. Any changes of hut fees will be notified in the newsletter and on the notice boards. The latest figures can also be obtained from the Hut Booking Secretary.

Any member or guest, staying overnight at Tan Yr Wyddfa, but sleeping in a parked vehicle near the hut must pay the same accommodation fee as he would if he occupied a bed.

7.1.1 Collection of Fees

Collection of hut fees is the responsibility of the meet leader where appropriate. All other groups must appoint a suitable person to collect the fees. All fees should be submitted to the Hut Booking Secretary within 14 days. Cheques shall be payable to the "Oread M.C."

7.2 Keys

Members (not Prospective Members) may obtain personal hut keys from the Hut Booking Secretary on payment of a deposit. Otherwise keys may be borrowed on a short-term basis. On no account should any member allow his/her key to be used by any other person unless they are also staying at the hut as the member's guest. An exception to this may be requested by the Hut Booking Secretary. All keys remain the property of the Oread Mountaineering Club.

7.3 Hut Booking

Members will be given priority in bookings, but where vacancies exist, external club/groups wishing to use the huts may be allowed to do so at the discretion of the Hut Booking Secretary, and will be expected to book Tan-yr-Wyddfa en-bloc. This implies the booking of 16 beds. All bookings must be made to the Hut Booking Secretary.

Oread Club Members are entitled to book the whole hut, including the Oread room at Tan Yr Wyddfa. Clubs with reciprocal rights occasionally arrange a hut swap with us. This would also involve the whole hut including the Oread room. Oread Members & those of different reciprocal rights clubs will not have access to the hut at these times.

7.4 TAN-YR-WYDDFA (G.R. SR571527)

7.4.1 Accommodation

The hut has four bedrooms with a sleeping capacity of 22 bunk beds. One of these rooms (6 beds) is reserved for the use of members at all times, except those specified in 7.3. It is the policy of the Hut Sub-Committee to let the hut to visiting clubs on three weekends per month, excluding the high summer season and bank holidays. Mattresses are provided, sleeping bags are required. The kitchen is fully equipped with Calor gas rings, Calor gas full-size oven, mains water, microwave, 2 fridges and all necessary utensils, as well as tea towels. There are 2 washrooms including 2 showers and 1 toilet upstairs; lounge, dining room, utility room, including drying room and 2 toilets downstairs. In addition there is an outside fuel store.

Limited camping may be allowed but must be arranged through the Hut Booking Secretary. No animals are allowed in the hut.

7.4.2 Water and Electricity Supply

For details and operating instructions, see the hut notice board.

7.4.3 Fuel

Coal and wood are available in the store and wooden coalbunker adjacent to the rearmost door. Both locks can be opened by a member's key.

7.4.4 On Arrival

All vehicles must be parked in the area next to the hut (see hut notice board for details). Proceed through the public car park, pass between the houses and our car park is on the left. Entry to the hut is via the rear or front door. No unnecessary noise should be made. Remember that there are people living in the house next to Tan-yr-Wyddfa, The hut register must be signed on arrival. Members are asked to check that others are signed in. It is a requirement of our Fire Safety Policy that all people staying in the hut sign in.

7.4.5 During your stay

The guiding principle should be that of respect for one's fellow guests and the local inhabitants. Keep your food together in one place on the food shelves, do not leave items on the floor. Wash up your pans and crockery as soon as possible and put them away, don't leave them to drain. Leave the cooking area as you would like to find it, even if you did not find it that way. Wet clothes should be dried in the drying room (not on the heaters as this is a serious fire risk) and cleared away as soon as possible. Smoking in the hut is strictly forbidden. Keep all fire doors closed. Put a fireguard in front of the fire in the lounge when left unattended. Check that the hut is secure at all times.

7.4.6 Departure

Even if you are only there for the day, please leave the hut in good order. When leaving at the end of a meet, make sure that each attendee does his/her fair share of cleaning; if the next party at the hut finds a mess, they will not be encouraged to leave the place any better than they found it.

The following is a checklist: -

1. Beds in order, blankets folded, mattresses stood on edge.
2. Floors swept and carpets hoovered.
3. Toilets cleaned.
4. Washing up completed and crockery put away.
5. Perishable food removed, fridges emptied, cleaned doors closed, and left switched on.
6. Kitchen and dining room surfaces and floors cleaned (wiped down and mopped)
7. Internal refuse bins emptied and a new bags fitted.
8. Recyclable material; that is metal cans, clean plastic containers and clean paper & cardboard, placed in the CLEAR plastic bags provided & then placed in the appropriate green bin by the front gate.
9. Uncooked vegetable matter placed in the composter next to the coal bunker.
10. Other refuse placed in black plastic bags, tops tightly secured and left in the appropriate bin by the front gate. Please note: The collectors will not take refuse that is not in plastic bags.

11. All glass bottles and jars to be taken home.
12. Fireplace cleaned and materials available to make a fire should be provided.
13. Complete details of your stay entered in the hut register.
14. Hut fees paid to meet leader or appropriate person.
15. Details of any repairs or problems should be brought to the attention of the Hut Custodian.
16. Ensure all three hut doors and outbuildings are safely locked & all windows shut.
17. Switch off the gas isolation valve (above the kitchen work surface behind the gas cooker rings).
18. Ensure that all internal doors are locked open by Dorgard units
19. In Winter: switch off the water at the mains (LH toilet downstairs)

It is the responsibility of the meet leader to organise an orderly departure and the responsibility of the last person leaving the hut to check that the above procedures have been carried out.

7.5 HEATHY LEA (G.R. SK272721)

7.5.1 Access

The hut is situated just off the A619 Baslow-Chesterfield Road. Approximately 1 mile from Baslow, travelling in an easterly direction the road swings leftwards. Immediately before on the right is an ill defined opening between trees, adjacent to a steel crash barrier. Swing into this opening and follow the narrow lane over a bridge, and the hut will be seen ahead. Go through the next gate and park on the small drive on the left behind the hut.

When travelling from Chesterfield do not attempt to turn left into the drive due to the tight angle. Proceed towards Baslow to the roundabout and return up the hill to turn right into the drive.

7.5.2 Accommodation

This comprises the cottage adjacent to the old pump house and a barn at the rear of the premises.

The cottage has two bedrooms upstairs with covered foam mattresses, 6 persons to each room. In the kitchen, there is an electric cooker with hob, 2 ovens and grill, a toaster, electric kettle and microwave. In the lounge there is a wood burning stove, fan heater, small climbing book library, and moneybox for day fees. There is a small washroom (1 wash basin) with hot water. The porch contains a fridge and provides for wet gear. The toilet adjacent to the porch is in a separate building, the light switch is in the porch, and the toilet key is hanging up.

The barn is intended as an overflow to the cottage, and therefore only offers basic facilities. It has a single sleeping loft area for eight persons, approached via a ladder. Mattresses are provided.

7.5.3 Water Supply

The stop tap controls the water supply. It is situated outside the front door of the cottage under a grate near the doorstep.

7.5.4 Electrical Supply

The master switch and its operating instructions are situated in the small cupboard on the left as you enter the lounge from the kitchen. The supply should be left on when leaving the hut.

7.5.5 During your stay

All hut users are requested to act in a manner which will maintain the good relationship between the Club and the Chatsworth Estate.

Important points to observe:

1. Drive gate should be fastened.
2. All vehicles must be parked as unobtrusively as possible. Cars may be parked in front of the cottage or on the track leading up to the barn. However, access must always be available for the use of the Chatsworth Estate.
3. Camping is not permitted.

7.5.6 Day Fees

Any member or guest, not staying the night, but parking a vehicle in the hut ground or using the cottage or barn facilities, must pay a parking fee per vehicle to be placed in the money box provided and your name should be entered in the hut register as day visitor.

7.5.7 Departure

For Departure instructions see the notice board at Heathy Lea.

7.6 Business Travel

When Club members travel on Committee or Sub-committee approved business they are entitled to reimbursement of their travel costs. The Club will pay 15 pence per mile or the fuel cost which ever is the higher. In the latter case the tank should be filled immediately before the journey and a receipt provided for refilling it immediately afterwards.

8 Reciprocal Rights

The usual interpretation of reciprocal rights is that for Hut booking purposes, participating clubs agree to treat each others' members as their own. The Oread Mountaineering Club currently has such agreement with the following clubs, and members wishing to use these facilities should approach the relevant booking secretary, in good time.

The Oread M.C. has Reciprocal Rights with the:
