

Joining the Oread Mountaineering Club

Provisional membership has no special conditions for joining, we just need your details and some money! It is aimed at the first year introduction to the club so that you can get to know the club and its members, and for them to get to know you, prior to progressing to full membership. Provisional membership gives you:

- The newsletter (sent electronically)
- Limited rights to use the club huts
- British Mountaineering Council membership inc third party insurance

There's no problem coming to a few daytime/ evening meets without joining as a provisional member, but you really should join if you want to come on any longer/ more serious meets, particularly involving an overnight stay.

You can choose to apply for full membership straight away, without passing through provisional membership.

Full membership requires support from a proposer and seconder. Your application must be initially approved by the committee, and then is opened to the membership to voice any objection via a notice in the newsletter. This process may sound rather cumbersome, but is in practice a formality intended to protect the club from undesirables. Objections are very rarely raised. Full membership gives you:

- The newsletter
- Full rights to use the club huts
- Reciprocal rights to use other BMC affiliated club huts
- BMC third party insurance
- Voting rights at the club AGM

Reduced subscriptions are available to full members who:

- Have reached state pension age (Senior Membership)
- Are resident abroad

Note: Membership is available only from age 18.
